

Certificate of Completion

Congratulations on completing GPC Career Accelerator, the interactive professional development program for the GPC team at Indeed.

By participating in this program, you've mastered the skills of:

- Having difficult conversations at work, such as giving feedback and declining new work
- Incorporating active listening skills that allow all team members to feel heard, valued, and understood
- Advocating for yourself and your ideas in a way that gets other people excited about, and invested in, your success
